COUNTY TAX RECAP $1,304.547 FOR '48

Total Figures Are Eight Percent Higher Than 1946-47

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 14 (WNS) —Taxpayers of Mendocino County are scheduled to pay $1,304,547 this fiscal year in general and special district tax levies, according to Thomas H. Kuchel, state controller.

Kuchel said the figures filed with him indicated the county levy as $715,100 for general, and $589,446 for special taxes. Total figures represents an 8% increase over the 1946-47 fiscal year levy.

Taxpayers in all counties, according to Kuchel, are subject to a levy of $451,322,846 this year, $210,702,328 of which is for general taxes, and $240,620,517 for special assessments. The statewide increase for all counties over last year is 18%.

The general levy in the county, Kuchel's report shows, is broken down into the following categories:

General purposes, $305,432; salary, $152,451; hospital and relief, $203,959; advertising, $5904; roads and bridges, $334; other purposes, $47,018.

The special taxes, the report shows, are for maintenance, $280,527; high school bonds, $39,484; elementary school maintenance, $238,528; elementary school bonds, $16,391; junior colleges, $11,977; lighting, $392; cemetery, $2145.

Short Shifts For Burglars

Officers Clear Up Robbery of The Ship At Ft. Bragg

Sheriff Broaddus and Deputies Bill White and Ward Reis set something of a record Wednesday in cleaning up the burglary of The Ship, a Fort Bragg bar and restaurant, which was cleaned out some time after 2 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Nini Bartalini and Millard Law, both 24 years of age, are in the county jail and Bartalini's confession of his part of the burglary is in the hands of the sheriff, obtained at 4 o'clock Thursday morning, after the two men were arrested in a Santa Rosa hotel and brought to Ukiah. Law's confession is expected to follow soon.

The Ship, owned and operated by Charles Ciapusci, and located on Main street in Fort Bragg, is next door to the postoffice. The place was closed at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning and the burglary was not discovered until opening time, at 8 o'clock.

Entrance was made through the back door, and once inside, the burglars had to force their way through two other doors to gain the barroom where the cash register was looted. The cash contents of the register were $108.35.

Chief Criminal Deputy William White was in Fort Bragg on other business and with Deputy Ward Ries of Fort Bragg was called in by Chief of Police Owen Hablutzel, who received the first report of the robbery.

Sheriff Broaddus went to the coast later in the day and leads which had been picked up were followed to Santa Rosa where Bartalini and Law were found in their hotel.

The money taken from the register was mostly in silver with six five dollar bills. At the county jail each of the prisoners yielded three five dollar bills and a considerable amount of silver.

Suspicion fell on Bartalini and Law because of their circumstances. Neither had been gainfully employed for six months but always had plenty of money. Law has been in trouble here several times and recently completed a term in jail for petty theft.

In winding up the raid on The Ship, Sheriff Broaddus is confident that 10 other burglaries committed in the coast town will be cleared up by the arrest of the two men, and his investigations may reach beyond the confines of Mendocino county, to throw light on other similar crimes.

Begin Plans For Spring Festival

Plans for the Third Annual Potter Valley Spring Festival were made Monday night at a special meeting at the Potter Valley Grange hall. The festival this year will be held on a Saturday and Sunday, May 22 and 23.

Saturday events include a series of 4-H Club displays, an afternoon baseball game and a dance in the evening. On Sunday there will be the traditional rodeo and barbecue. A colorful parade is also being planned for the May event.

Following are the festival committee chairmen appointed at the first meeting: Don Hulbert, advertising; Lloyd Hughes, floats and parade; Reid Farnsworth, dance; Marvin Holman, rodeo; Paul Poulos, food; Harry Hopper, rodeo refreshments.

Housewives Wary as Food Prices Unwind

Ukiah's housewives and food merchants entered the second week of dropping food prices today with a cautious skepticism, but with the hope that several reductions here and there on their food lists were omens of a definite break in the former trend of steadily rising prices.

"It's too early to make any definite predictions. Let's wait and see," was the usual rejoinder encountered locally when harassed local merchants were quizzed about the possibility of a general price drop.

Today's late market reports showed a halt in price reductions with some foods back on the upgrade after the weekend slump.

Many of Ukiah's grocery purveyors harked back to last February when a similar drop in the price of meats, fats and oils was noted, only to have the skyrocketing trend come back with even greater momentum during the summer and early fall of 1947. However, local retailers, plagued with frequent protests about the price of their foods, sincerely hoped the present break in grocery prices would develop into a definite downward trend.

Although city food stores reported definite reductions on as many as 80 items in their food lists, merchants here interpreted the situation as merely indicative of localized price wars in those areas.

Actually, reductions in the Pacific coast area have been limited to prices on flour, sugar, oils and shortenings, bacon, butter and margarine, fruit juices and some soaps. Some cuts of beef had been reduced in price slightly Friday and Saturday in Ukiah.

Local retailers reported price reductions as much as 83 cents off on 50 pounds of flour, 4 cents on 10 pounds of sugar, 2 cents per pound on lard and shortenings, and 2 cents per medium sized package on granular soaps.

"The one thing we noted particularly about this week's sales was an increased buyer resistance," one Ukiah food dealer pointed out. "In many cases, housewives accustomed to stocking up regularly on staple items decided to 'buy just one now—maybe the price'll be lower next week,' . . .rather than make any extended purchases."

"For the first time in many, many months our list of price reductions was longer than the list of advances this week," another local merchant commented.

Another city food store proprietor noted, "Business was slower than normal this week, in spite of a few price drops. Our price changes consisted of a few reductions and there were still several increases outside the heavy staple lines."

"We've been deluged with phone calls from housewives inquiring about price reductions, but buying hasn't been as heavy as usual," was still another report. "It was amazing to see the reactions of many of the customers. 'Gee, these prices have certainly gone down,' one feminine shopper remarked—and every grocery item in her basket was exactly the same price as it had been for weeks."

"Most of the items showing reductions are the ones that have been the most out of line—probably indicating a certain 'conscience' on the part of some wholesalers and agents," one store manager remarked. "Canned goods and most packaged lines stayed at the same price."

"Meat dealers making reductions on bacon and beef are doing so in anticipation of the reduced prices already announced by wholesalers," a local grocer maintained. "In general, manufacturers will tend to hold their prices a few more weeks until a definite downward trend is evident. But, after all, why ask us about the price situation when even the experts in Washington are baffled."

Nationally, the comment by economic experts has been tinged with a note of surprise. Ordinarily retail food price reductions lag three weeks to more than three months behind any drop in staple crops, such as the falling off of the wheat market last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ryan of Talmage left Thursday for San Diego where he will attend the meeting of the executive board of the American Legion on Saturday and Sunday.

County Roads Ask $416,000

Sum Is Proposed As Needed For Work On 4 Projects

Governor Warren's 1948-49 state highway construction budget totals $50,006,000 for actual construction work, according to recommendations of the California Highway Commission contained in the budget.

In addition, construction engineering, minor improvements, rights of way, preliminary engineering and design and contingencies bring the total to $83,146,662.

Mendocino county projects, showing the total estimated cost, given by the division of highways, which includes engineering and rights of way, and the actual construction cost in the budget, follow:

Three miles south to one mile north of Rattlesnake summit, base and surface four miles; $140,000 total, $125,000 construction.

St. Ore's creek, grade, surface and culvert .5 mile; $109,000 total, $86,000 construction.

Big River bridge repair; $90,000 total, $77,000 construction.

Virgin Creek, grade, surface and culvert .5 mile; $77,000 total, $65,000 construction.

Dry Wine Growers Favor Separation

Dry wine grapes throughout the state may seek separation from the producers of sweet wine and raisin grapes in solving their marketing problems.

More than 60 grapemen, meeting in the St. Helena grammar school auditorium, February 13, took this position following a discussion of the divergent interests of the two groups.

The vinticulturists, however, will not seek to separate themselves from the powerful Wine Institute, but feel that their best interests will be served if the 13 dry wine counties of the state band together in a new unit to study their own marketing methods.

It was pointed out that under the present setup, with no sharp distinction between dry and sweet wine grower emphasis, the more influential sweet wine interests hold the balance of power. Since the aims of the sweet wine and raisin grape producers are often in conflict with the objectives of the dry wine producers, they feel separation is the wisest course.

HENRY F. RANG SERVICES

Funeral services for Henry F. Rang have been set for Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Ukiah Funeral Chapel, complete arrangements pending arrival of relatives from the bay districts. Mr. Rang passed away in Ukiah Wednesday, February 18. He was the father of Mrs. Jack Cowen of 407 West Henry street.

Mrs. Joe Bigham and son Joe were guests at the Palace Hotel Thursday night, coming up from their home at Modesto to visit and transact business.

Beloved Gardener Passes

Funeral rites for Samuel Mitchell were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Eversole Mortuary with Dr. Richard Van der Las, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment in the Ukiah Masonic Cemetery followed.

Mr. Mitchell was born in England 76 years ago and had been a resident of this community for the past 37 years. He was a gentleman of the old school, always kindly and courteous, a helpful neighbor and friend, active in church work, with a lively interest in current events. He passed away Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ann Richey.

Surviving members of his family are three daughters, Mrs. Ann Richey and Mrs. Gladys Richey of Ukiah, and Mrs. Dasie Richey of Petaluma; three sons, Ewert, James and Jack Mitchell, all of Ukiah; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. His wife preceded him in death 28 years ago.

Pallbearers were George Anderson, Paul Mathews, Lilburn Gibson, Harold Fauli, George Ward and Carl Hinds.

THURSDAY ROBBER MADE SELECT HAUL

A burglar who took only radios, with apparently no designs on whatever cash might have been in the till, broke into the Willford Enterprises store on Luce avenue Thursday morning of last week and took with him four such instruments and one spotlight. A check of missing articles showed there were a Motorola auto radio, a portable and a table model and one aerial model.

The burglary took place some time between 2 a.m., when Officer Simpson tried the door of the building, and approximately 8 o'clock, when John Clark, a salesman, was there and left a note saying he would be back.

Evidence found by the police indicates that the first attempt to enter the place was made on the office window, where a hole was broken in the glass. The back door was tried next, and with success. A square mesh screen on the upper half of the door was broken, so the burglar could climb in. After gathering up the radios and flashlight, he walked out the front entrance.

It was a good, clean job, with nothing left in the way of clues for the police, and the chances of recovering the radios are almost nil because the invoices failed to give the model and serial numbers of those stolen.

Estimate $10,604,500 Needed For Forestry

Total expenditure of $10,604,500 for the state division of forestry, an increase of $1,375,042 over the $9,229,458 estimated expenditure this year, is requested in the 1948-49 state budget.

Capital outlay for Mendocino county projects include: Acquisition of property near Boonville, $2000; Covelo, $750; Hale's Grove, $2000; Tomki, $1500; Point Arena (Gualala), $1000.

BOURBONS CONFER ON 1948 OUTLOOK

The Mendocino County Democratic Central Committee met last week end for a discussion and analysis of the local and national situations as regards the coming elections in 1948.

The greatest concern of the committee is to secure registration of those people who have moved recently into this county, that the greatest number possible be eligible for the primaries. A spokesman for the party called attention to the great increase in population throughout the state and said that if California is to continue to command the respect of our national and state leaders her citiezns must be prepared to vote. It is the duty of this committee, he said, to provide information and urge the registration of newcomers in the county.

To tie in with the national theme, Register America, funds were set aside for publicity in our local papers, urging registration of all persons, regardless of party affiliations.

Plans for places of registration have already been completed at Hopland, Calpella, Redwood Valley and Potter Valley.

New Jersey Couple To Establish Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ready of West Orange, New Jersey, are in Ukiah on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Ransdell. Mrs. Ready is the former Emma Ransdell, whose wedding took place at Santa Rosa on February 2, 1946, just after Mr. Ready returned from overseas.

At West Orange, Mr. Ready was assistant supervisor of the export department of the Monroe Calculating Machine Company. He has come west to establish his home and will be on the lookout for a situation as soon as he has had time to get acquainted with his surroundings.

GROWERS' ANNUAL SHEARING SCHOOL

Experts Coming to Boonville Exhibition Next Saturday

The Mendocino County Woolgrowers Association holds its second annual sheep shearing school next Saturday at the county fair grounds in Boonville, in cooperation with the California Woolgrowers Association.

E. A. Warner, livestock specialist of the Sunbeam Corporation, will teach the Australian method of shearing, which takes off the entire fleece in one piece, which is both desirable and profitable, as the method adds to the value of the wool.

Discussions on the production and handling of wool and tying the fleeces will be conducted by Dr. J. F. Wilson and Prof. R. F. Miller, both of the Davis College of Agriculture.

Future Farmers, 4-H Club members, range and farm flock owners and amateur and professional shearers of several counties of this area attend these schools. Farm Advisor R. D. Foote, Maurice Tindall, president of the county association, John Ornbaun of Elk, vice president, and others are assisting in the arrangements.

Ex-Con Fails As Salesman

Ray Cloran, recent arrival in this section, made himself a temporary berth at the city jail when he offered to sell Chief of Police Viarengo the Maple Cafe's typewriter for $30, the first of the week.

Cloran, whose receord of brushes with the law extends from Pasadena in 1931 through way points with all stops, to McNeil Island, Washington, from whence he was released on New Year day, came into Ukiah at the weekend, and finding the Maple machine sitting around loose, picked it up and walked out.

Almost immediately, it appears from the police report, Cloran became a typewriter salesman and had offered his stock to two prospects. At the third attempt, he found a man who not only was suspicious, but who transmitted his suspicious to Viarengo, who dropped in, disguised in a raincoat and hat, and took an immediate interest in the transaction. Negotiations were still in progress when they rounded the corner at School and Perkins and the red light over police headquarters showed Cloran in which direction he was headed. He wanted to drop the matter there.

Cloran is 33 years of age and came to Ukiah from San Francisco.

Paul Fahrney Is Operations G.M.

Appointment of Paul L. Fahrney as general manager of operations in its marketing department, has been announced by Standard Oil Company of California. Fahrney, since 1942 the president of American Bitumuls Company, a subsidiary, succeeds the late Hollis B. Fairchild. He is a brother of H. L. Fahrney of Ukiah, wholesale distributor for Standard Oil.

In May, 1929, Fahrney became district manager for American Bitumuls at Baltimore, Maryland, directing operation of a refinery and the manufacturing and sales work in that area. In 1941 he was appointed general sales manager for the company, which is now operating throughout the United States with nine bitumuls factories and sales offices and two asphalt refineries.

FIRE DISTRICT ON COAST

A petition for the formation of a fire district near Mendocino is on file with the county supervisors, who set March 8 for the hearing, in the Mendocino high school gymnasium at 10 o'clock.

Grand Jury Asks For Bond Election In June

The Mendocino County Grand Jury were in session Monday and Tuesday on a special call from Foreman Arthur Schilder, and devoted their time to considering the matter of a new county courthouse and county hospital, two matters that have been under consideration for several years.

As regards the county hospital, haste is now urged, both by the board of supervisors and the grand jury, that some material accomplishment be made. It is understood that meetings will be arranged between the architect and heads of the county departments interested in the hospital and detention home, to consider changes which may be desirable.

At their Tuesday afternoon session, the Grand Jury approved a set of recommendations which were filed with the board of supervisors, and which the board now has under consideration.

One recommendation calls for immediate steps in preparation for a bond election to be held at the time of the June primary, for the purpose of presenting the matter of the sale of bonds necessary for the construction of and equipment of a county courthouse, which would include an adequate county jail.

The Grand Jury also called for consideration of the proposition of abolishing all offices of township constables and delegating the matter of serving papers and keeping the peace to the office of the county sheriff.

The jury recommended that consideration be given to the proposition of transferring the office of public administrator to the office of the district attorney.

Adequate toilet facilities for the offices of the county recorder also were called for.

Busch Cites Vets' Needs

Disabled Service Men Need Hospital Facilities

State cooperation may be necessary to alleviate the acute shortage of beds for disabled veterans, State Senator Burt Busch of Lakeport said in a statement at Santa Rosa Tuesday, soon after his return from a tour of investigation in southern California as a member of the senate interim committee on military and veterans affairs.

The situation within this state calls for immediate attention from the federal government, Senator Busch said, in stating his belief that the coming state legislature should give early consideration to this and other veteran problems.

As a member of the interim committee, Senator Busch has exhibited a lively interest in the welfare of veterans and is working on legislation in their behalf, to be presented at the session in March.

Senators Quinn, Dilworth and Ward participated in the survey of veteran hospitals with Busch, which was climaxed by a hearing on veteran problems in general, conducted at Los Angeles.

Cleland President Of Bar Association

The annual meeting of the Mendocino County Bar Association was held Friday night at Andy's Place, south of Willits, where 16 members of the association enjoyed an excellent steak dinner.

Election of officers followed the dinner, when Thomas Cleland of the firm of Preston & Falk was chosen president; Norman Johnson of Fort Bragg, retiring president, was elected secretary; John Nelson, deputy district attorney, vice president.

Members present were Judge W. D. L. Held, retired, Superior Judge Lilburn Gibson, Charles Mannon, Irving Brazier, Hale McCowen, Charles Kasch, Wayne P. Burke, Newell Rawles, Harry Falk, Thomas Cleland, Joseph Rattigan, Henry Spurr and John Nelson, all of Ukiah; D. T. Bennitt, A. G. Lyons and Attorney Porter of Willits.

Absent members included District Attorney James E. Busch, W. S. Van Dyke, Harold Brunner and Leo M. Cook of Ukiah and Norman Johnson of Fort Bragg.

Attorney Joseph Rattigan is associated with the firm of Preston & Falk.

Hamilton Services Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. Angie Hamilton, the mother of Don Emerson and a sister of Mrs. Rice Neff, both of Ukiah, will be held Tuesday afternoon, February 17, at 2 o'clock from the Eversole Mortuary with Rev. Leonard Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating.

Mrs. Hamilton had been a resident of this vicinity for the past 37 years and her home was on the Low Gap road at the time of her death. She was ill for only a short time.

Pallbearers will be Harold Hull, George Ward, William Bromley, Harold Zimmerman, Elmer Sweet and Edson Witherell. Interment will be in the Ukiah Masonic Cemetery.

Crop Improvement Group Meets Here

A regional meeting of the California Crop Improvement Association on certified seed production will be held at the farm advisor's office at Ukiah on Wednesday, February 25, at 1:30 p.m.

The purpose of this meeting is to permit growers, agricultural extension service representatives, agricultural commissioners, and seedmen in the district an opportunity to discuss local problems and to make recommendations for seed improvement to the board of directors of the Crop Improvement Association.

Attending the meetings will be Emro Bruch of the state department of agriculture, Julius C. Deubner of the California Farm Bureau Federation, and Loren L. Davis, extension field crops specialist. They will be prepared to discuss the activities of their respective organizations as related to seed certification.

A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in seed improvement to attend the meeting.

Wrecked Butane Truck Endangers Motorists

PHILO, Feb. 14.—Traffic was held up on the Haehl Hill west of Cloverdale for several hours Tuesday afternoon because of the danger of butane fumes. A truckload of butane coming west went out of control on the hill and the driver, realizing the danger, steered the truck into the bank. As there was a ditch, the truck slowly settled on its side. The driver went for help and in the process of righting the truck the outlet valve broke and several thousand gallons of butane covered the highway. This halted traffic, as the danger of igniting butane is very high. Several of the valley people shopping in Cloverdale did not get to their homes for several hours.

The Morrison Creek bridge has been completed and accepted by the county.

SCHOOL STAFF MEETS AT PALACE HOTEL

Tentative plans for a benefit card party were made at the February meeting of Ukiah Elementary school teachers at the Palace Hotel. Language Arts was the subject of their table talk, a part of the program arranged by the committee in charge, which consisted of Mrs. Peggy Mitchell, Mrs. Evelyn Hiatt and Mrs. Harriette Jones.

In the absence of F. F. Zeek, principal, the question box was handled by Mrs. Ethel Smith, president of the organization.

Mrs. Harriett Jones is leaving the school to join her husband at Davis and she was presented with a gift. Leonard Svenson was a guest of the club.

Comic Valentines contributed to the informal pleasure of the dinner. The decorative motif was Valentine with red and white candles, Valentine nut cups and daphne dressing the table.

★ Willits News Notes

WILLITS, Feb. 17—The William Bergson family visited friends and relatives in Willits this week. Bill at one time was on the Willits police force and since his resignation has been a member of the Berkeley force.

The nursery at the Howard Memorial Hospital has gone stag with the arrival of a son for Mr. and Mrs. Adam Horning of Laytonville on the 16th, followed by a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wilburn on the evening of the 17th.

St. Valentine's day found Willits humming with excitement. At the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Barcklow, Mrs. Barcklow was hostess at a tea honoring her sister, Mrs. M. G. Bell of Nora Springs, Iowa, who is visiting here with her husband. Mrs. J. J. Keller and Mrs. George Heyward presided over the tea table, which was set with a gold tea service on a lace cloth with white candles and carnations as a center piece. The carnation theme was further carried out by the corsages worn by the guest of honor, the hostess and those assisting. With such a table against a room decorated with huckleberry, it is no wonder that the tea was a success.

Another social success on the 14th was the Valentine luncheon given by Mrs. Sidney Black for the local small fry. Those attending were the three Black sisters, Laura, Maurine and Karen; Beverly and Claudine Recagno, Charmel and Melvin Butcher, Marjorie and Bonnie Harrah, Ralph, George and Sonja Hagg and little Diane Koster. In addition to an appetizing luncheon cooked and served by the hostess, the children had true Valentine cakes. These were baked by Mrs. Jane Harrah, who frosted them in white and trimmed them with red hearts.

Little Miss Pam Kiraly took advantage of Valentine day to celebrate her fourth birthday with a party of young folks. Although her birthday was actually on the 11th, Miss Kiraly invited Karen Black, Susan DeLong, Gayle Zanella, Claudine Recagno, Beverly Cinek, Marsha Cameron, Judith Steadman, Edith Tattersfield, Patty Quigley, Ellen Williams, Dianne Hildebrand, Sally and Joanne Johnsrud, Bobby Whittaker, Jerry Stringer and Jock Kiraly on Saturday so they would not have to play hookey from school to attend. All enjoyed cake, ice cream and chocolate milk, served at a table decorated in the Valentine motif complete with matching cloth, napkins, plates and cups. Nor did they overlook the red and white baskets full of candy that were used as place cards. Beverly Cinek came the closest to pinning Mickey Mouse's tail in the proper place, so she won first prize. Second prize went to Jerry Stringer; Judith Steadman received third.

Saturday night found the dancing population of Willits at the Valentine dance sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. With the hall fairly oozing with traditional hearts and frills, music by Pacini and his Riffs, and four door prizes, it was even worth braving the drizzle to attend. The first prize, a $10 merchandise order by Johnson's, was won by the visiting policeman from Berkeley, Bill Bergsen. Bruce Steadman walked off with the second, a $5 order on the J. C. Penney Company, courtesy of Al Greenberg, while Mr. and Mrs. Herb Waud anticipate two chicken dinners at Andy's, for that is the prize Mrs. Waud won. George Recagno took the fourth prize, a 7-piece glass set donated by Sprouse-Reitz. Although final count has not been made, it is safe to assume that the auxiliary's first dance was a success.

All the excitement in Willits was not limited to parties, and the "dance" for the police department had a busy evening. Climaxing an evening of fighting, Lemuel Ogles, David Long, Mirlin Bohall, Leslie Bohall and Robert Withrow found lodging in the Willits jail. At least they could continue their battle verbally while cooling their heels, but Gertrude Hunter had to stand alone as she was the only woman arrested Saturday. Sunday found things almost quiet, but for the antics of one Thomas Gilley, who the local peace officers picked up for drunk driving.

Members of Willits Post 174, American Legion, gave Fred Stanley a military funeral on Saturday. Mr. Stanley, although not a member of the American Legion, was a veteran of the second world war.

Mrs. Estelle Talley, Kenney Butin and W. E. Rucker went to Ukiah Monday to attend a dairyman's meeting. It is hard to figure the future cost of milk on paper and approximate the poundage the cow will produce, but the hardest part of all is to explain it to the cow, so she will cooperate.

The third of a series of card parties sponsored by the Rebekah lodge was held on February 16. Of the seven tables that played, Ed Quinliven, Mr. Cook, Darroll Page, A. Recagno, Alicia Cureton, Mrs. George Pinches, Gert Orcutt, Helen Smith, Josie Booey, Rose Heckendorf and Gil Elliott took high scores. The next party is to be held on February 23.

The miracle men of Miracle Maid waterless cooking utensils were busy this past week. Representative See proved how quickly, economically and easily a dinner for 12 could be turned out, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turner. Others who enjoyed the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. John Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Turner and Ken Cunningham. Then on Saturday Mr. J. H. Rea of the same company demonstrated how far a small ham would go toward feeding six hungry couples. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Wilburn was the scene of this dinner. Those discovering how a complete ham dinner, including cake, would be made and served in 15 minutes, were the Ned Wilburns, Louis Zanellas, Wilbur Pullens and Carl Schloegels.

The residents of Willits were shocked to hear of the death of John C. Spaletta in Santa Rosa. Mr. Spaletta was well known among the older residents, as he was with the division of highways at Laytonville 15 years, after which he did private contracting. He was a member of Willits Lodge No. 365, F.&A.M.

Tuesday afternoon, Erletta Kiraly was hostess to her bridge club members, Margaret Elliott, Rose Heckendorff, Violet Wise, Mecca McPeak, Ella Bondison, Alicia Cureton, Bernice Campbell, Pat Stringer, Mrs. George Jamieson, Mrs. Alex Hansen, and Mrs. A. H. Thompson. There were no prizes awarded, inasmuch as the score is an accumulative one, with prizes being given once a year. On prize awarding day each member brings a gift and the highest score gets first choice, next highest second, and so on down the line until even the lowest scorer receives a gift. Now, it is obvious why refreshments were served before the card game began, for one peek at the delicious jelly roll cream torte, or a whiff of the fragrant coffee would take even Culbertson's mind off of bridge.

The ambitious members of the American Legion donned work clothes Tuesday and really worked. Their job was to remove not only all the steam radiators from the Veterans' Memorial building, but to remove all signs of such equipment having been installed. It is all done with due pride over the newly installed automatic electric heating unit. If only some kind Legionnaire would show the auxiliary members how it works!

The Willits Horsemen's Association will go on their first trail ride on the morning of February 22 at 10 o'clock. The ride will start at the Shell Oil station at the foot of Sherwood road and will follow the road to Brooktrails Guest Ranch, then down the trails back of Brooktrails. All who are interested in horses are invited to attend, but if you have the habit of eating every few hours consider yourself forewarned. Bring your own lunch as the association is furnishing coffee, only. Should you for any reason be unable to attend on the 22nd, try to be present on February 27 at Leak's hall at 8 o'clock. Hosts for the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Edwards.

With Valentine day behind us we are looking forwad to the St. Patrick day card party on February 26 at Leak's hall. It will be sponsored by the W.I.C. of Willits, and will feature whist and bridge. Proceeds will be donated to the assistance of the cooperative nursery school. The door prize will be donated by Mrs. Grace Williams. Mesdames George Petersen, Hildebrand, Jack Williams, Gladys McCray and Erletta Kiraly will be hostesses for the occasion. Looking ahead, we find that the Lions Club committee for the annual Easter egg hunt is composed of Fred Lindeman, Dr. R. B. Smalley, Louis Bertain and Ward Young, who are to don ears and cotton tails and see that all the children in Willits are once again reassured that there is an Easter bunny, when they find the brightly colored eggs hidden in thickets and on the lawns.

Now, at long last, I realize fully what my English teacher used to mean when she said that one word or one comma can change the structure of a whole sentence. It was brought home to yours truly when I read the February 16 issue. As the sentence stands it means that the car driven by Jane Williams jumped the curb while the boy came to rest against a convenient telephone pole. Actually the car jumped the curb, and the boy, then came to rest against said telephone pole. Regardless, none of the three were seriously hurt or damaged.

Frontier Days Forecast

The latest report on the Wililts Frontier Days and Centennial Celebration, according to Louis Zanella, president and general manager, is that thus far three local organizations have volunteered to sponsor a girl between the ages of 17 and 21, who is single, a good rider, and of course, pretty, to run as their candidate for Sweetheart of the Rodeo. The three organizations are the B.P.W., Willits Horsemen's Association and the American Legion.

Besides sponsoring a candidate for sweetheart, the B.P.W. will take charge of the floats to be entered into the parade. The Horsemen will handle the caravan and be responsible for lining up ranchers for the parade. The 20-30 Club will decorate stage coaches, and will help in the grandstands, selling programs, etc. The Willits Lions Club will be the big shots in the annual Whisekrino contest. Music and uniform groups in the parade will be under the supervision of the American Legion. Advertising will fall into the hands of the Willits Chamber of Commerce.

The ball will really start rolling (or is it the rope twirling) on February 28, when members of the Willits Fire Department will contact business houses for the purpose of selling annual certificates as an advertising medium. It is shaping up to a mammoth event with the orchestra of Ralph Rawson of Napa under contract to furnish the music for all three nights. Friday night, July 2, there will be a free-for-all street dance; July 3 and 4 the dancing will be in the Willits Park pavilion, with the usual charges being made.

The Shell Oil Company promises a super firecracker display. Shorty Wrightsman will be on hand with his carnival.

Credit for much thought and planning to make this Fourth truly something to remember, goes to all the members of the Willits Volunteer Fire Department, but especially to Lou Zanella, previously mentioned; Bob Alcott, chairman of the dances; Lloyd Elliott, certificates; Wilbur Pullen, parade; Alan Sacry, tickets and sweetheart contest; Jack Crocker, caravan; George Harms, Jr., advertising; Louie Bertain, parade music, and Bob Harrah, concessions. Make a date for the Fourth, now.

The 1948 Red Cross Fund campaign is less than two weeks away! Consequently, Mrs. William Talley, fund chairman, and her volunteer assistants in Laytonville, Cummings, Legette Valley, Piercy and Branscomb, as well as in Willits, are ready for action. This year the quota is set for $1600, or $274 more than last year, when $2082.70 was collected, which was $756.70 over the quota. Here's hoping that all do their part. Then, and only then, will we be sure that we will make the quota. The 1948 slogan is, "It's Red Cross Time! GIVE!" So, let's GIVE.

They Were Married At Bend, Oregon, At Formal Eight o'Clock Wedding

There were 250 guests assembled at Trinity Episcopal church in Bend, Oregon, Saturday night, February 14, at 8 o'clock to witness the marriage of Franklin Walter Sandelin and Miss Gay Hamilton. Rev. M. Bolster read the ceremony.

The announcement of the bride's approach came with the entrance of the choir in the aisles singing a beautiful hymn for the occasion. Nettie Maki, a pretty nine-year-old girl was the chalice bearer. She was followed by Mrs. Irene Cleland, matron of honor, a brunette of striking beauty, in an off-the-shoulder red velvet gown with full flared ankle length skirt. She carried white roses.

Ann Maki was the flower girl, strewing single red rose petals in the path of the bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a white brocade gown of exquisite simplicity, long sleeves, sweetheart neck and gently flaring skirt. Her waist length veil was held in place with a tiara.

The church was formal for the occasion, white candles and calla lilies being the only decorations used.

The bride is the daughter of Circuit Court Judge and Mrs. Ralph Scott Hamilton. She is a graduate of Oregon State University and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, having lived in the sorority house during her college life.

Judge Hamilton was at one time holder of a professor's chair in the University of Oregon.

Sandelin is better known in Ukiah as Terry, assistant manager of the Palace Hotel, which has been in the family for several generations. He graduated from San Francisco Junior College, where a course in hotel management is offered. He has been president of the chamber of commerce here and is an active member in several clubs.

There were many social affairs in honor of the young couple before and after the wedding. Terry was honor guest at a cocktail party the night before the wedding. There were about 60 guests there to meet the groom-to-be. After the cocktail party there was a rehearsal of the wedding ceremony.

After the wedding there was a reception for the 250 guests, at Pilot Butte Inn. They served champagne punch and the bride cut a three-tier wedding cake. The groom's cake was individually wrapped and presented to the guests. It is a part of an old legend for the girl to put the cake under her pillow with seven names and the one dreamed of on the seventh night will be the one she will marry.

The first stop of the bride and groom on their honeymoon trip was at Timberline Lodge on Mount Hood. From there they went to Seattle for a short stop, then proceeded to Back Bay Beach Hotel, Victoria, B.C., where they have a bridal suite that looks out on the bay.

Members of the Sandelin family who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sandelin, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sandelin and Mrs. Irene Cleland.

Seven-Thirty Club Reported Good Time

Members of the Seven-Thirty Club are reported as having had a delightful time at their informal social meeting in the church parlors on Lincoln's birthday.

There was no mention of business and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hay with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tregoning started the party with a game in which the men were numbered and the women were numbered, and if anyone was a stranger at the beginning of the stepping stone game, this broke the ice.

A gold loving cup, gleaned from the stock of one of Ukiah's vendors of old treasures, was presented to Bill Bittenbender as captain of the winning team.

The long arm of the law in the person of John Viarengo reached out to almost certain victory, when Harry Roberts marched forward and "copped" the trophy for the men. Mrs. Tregoning was the feminine influence with the longest reach.

In the naming of odors sealed in bottles with contents hidden, in the manner of school days in the chemistry laboratory, John Viarengo and Mrs. Howard Cheever took the crystal candle sticks as the winners.

It sounds rather bad but there was a team of blow hards and it is a title well deserved by Mrs. A. S. Fraga, Mrs. Robert Jardine, Mrs. Harry Roberts and Robert Jardine, captain of the team. They blew paper cups along twenty feet of string in the shortest time, winning their title from two other teams by a close margin.

Then there was a contest distinguishing things we touch all the time, and this contest was joined in by Dr. James B. Massengill, which was unfortunate for the rest of the group, since he had 21 out of 24 answers right.

There were about 35 or 40 present. Mrs. Alex Tregoning and Mrs. Frank Hay prepared a midnight supper laid on tables decorated in Valentine theme by Mrs. Harry Roberts and Mrs. A. S. Fraga.

He told of some of the conditions in England, showing how difficult their daily living is, due to food rationing as well as shortages of clothing, gas, and other necessities.

He spoke of the leisurely life in Ireland and remarked especially on the fact that one forgets how the passing of time (in his case, 12 years) takes "the bloom from the cheeks of youth."

He visited his relatives, former classmates and friends, and renewed acquaintance with scenes of his childhood, visited old churches and a monastery in Ireland.

PHILO, Feb. 14.—A meeting of Rebekah lodge was held Tuesday night. A benefit card party is being planned on February 28 for Claude Presley, a member of the lodge. Mr. Presley, whose leg was amputated several weeks ago, is still in the hospital because his leg is healing slowly. It is reported that he may go to the San Francisco clinic this week. Members and friends in the valley are contributing to help him with the expense. The sympathy of the entire valley is extended to Mr. Presley.

Another project the Rebekahs are working on at present is a Basket Fund, to help contributions toward medical care for school children in the valley. The basket, which is passed from one Rebekah to another, starts with an article. The second member buys the article and places some other article in the basket. This continues until all members have had a chance to buy one article. This is an interesting way of helping, as well as beneficial, and was suggested by Mrs. Phil Clark. Following the meeting, cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Vernon Rawles, and Mrs. Morris Tindall.

Projects considered for future activities of the 4-H Club are a club band, a Valentine party and contributions to the March of Dimes. The 4-H Club project books will be returned soon. These books contain complete records of the member's projects during the year and will be returned with awarding seals added, according to the completeness of the book. The agricultural division of the club, which was present, gave a report by Arthur Rowley on an agricultural tour taken the previous Saturday. The sewing division reports that the first phase members have nearly completed their head scarves, collar and cuff sets and laundry bags, which they have been sewing. The second phase girls are now beginning their more difficult dresses with set-in sleeves. A demonstration was given on how to straighten material, by Norma Benton and Lorina Nash. For a windup of the meeting, the club sang one of their songs, The Plough Song.

The Young Adult Club held their monthly meeting Wednesday night at the Indian Creek clubhouse. Valentine day was the theme and following the business meeting an interesting discussion of folk dancing was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Forrester of Fort Bragg, who were guests of the evening. The Forresters demonstrated several dance steps that are becoming so popular as the Centennial year of the gold rush approaches. Following the meeting refreshments were served of heart-shaped cakes and jello-whip, with the names of the members written in frosting on the top. Committeemen of the evening were George and Ann-Marie Gowan, Archie Schoenahl, Charmian Ward and Richard Day.

Mrs. Arnold Brown returned Wednesday night from San Francisco where she has been having some dental work done. She plans to return to the city sometime next week.

Mrs. Anna Brown of Philo celebrated her 82nd birthday Thursday. Friends had planned to drop in and surprise her that day, but Wednesday she fell ill, so cards were sent instead.

Mrs. Walter Tuttle was guest of honor at a stork shower given by Mrs. Curtis Clark at her attractive home in Boonville. A table, encircled with smilax and adorned with a centerpiece of ferns and violets in a baby shoe vase, held the attractive and dainty gifts. A baby quilt was worked on by the guests and each guest handed in a name for the prospective newcomer. Refreshments of pink and white cakes and ice cream were served in the dining room, with the table cunningly arranged with miniature baby furniture, and decorated in pink and blue. Guests of the afternoon were Beth Tuttle, Zola Willis, Marjorie Willis, Laura Ogle, Mrs. Harry Arnold, Mrs. W. G. Presley, Helen Lycky, Arlie Clark and Alpha Adams. Guests who sent gifts, but were unable to attend, were Mesdames Beth Tolman, E. Stuart, Porter Willis, Ethel Walker, Esther Cardey and Eve Farrer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Graham of Boonville have had as their guests this week Mrs. Graham's nephew, Lieut. and Mrs. John Monsan of Hawaii. Many will recall Mrs. Monsan as the hula dancer for the March of Dimes dance, January 31. The Monsans are originally from Georgia and were transferred to the Islands. Another reunion in the Monsan family was last week, when the lieutenant's father, Leigh Monsan of St. Louis, stopped to see his son at Boonville, enroute to Oregon.

A surprise party was held last week by the senior class for their advisor, Mrs. Velma Farrer, at the high school. The entire faculty as well as the class were present to wish her happy birthday.

The Boonville Methodist pastorate, which has been vacant for several weeks, is now being filled by Rev. J. A. Gibson, a retired Baptist minister, who is employed weekdays at the Merrit-Donahue mill. Rev. Reid, former pastor, who became ill, will not be able to return. District Superintendent Owen has been notified of the vacancy, and all church attenders are grateful to Rev. Gibson for his services. Boonville services have been held at 11 o'clock and Philo services, which are being conducted by laymen, are also at that hour.

Rudolph Eton, who has been ill at his home at Philo, went to the Healdsburg hospital this week for observation.

Mrs. Windsor motored to Woodland this week to attend a wedding shower for the future Mrs. Calvin Harling, Jr. She was accompanied by her nieces, Marlene and "Dopey" MacKintosh, who will spend the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harling.

Many valley residents will be saddened to hear of the passing of Rev. Millington, who died January 16 at Petaluma at the age of 82 years. Rev. Millington held his first pastorate in Boonville many years ago, and from here moved to Santa Rosa where he resided for many years. During that time he married Olive Mary Hiatt of Yorkville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hiatt, prominent pioneers of this area. Mrs. Hiatt preceded him in death by only seven months.

Mrs. Arnold Brown returned this week from San Francisco, where she has been having dental work done. She expects to return for more treatment sometime next week.

Mrs. Sawyer and Miss Sawyer teach at the Dos Palos schools. Tad Sawyer, who is also a teacher, is spending this winter at his ranch in Navarro, doing improving.

Anderson valley was in the news this week, when a letter written by Mrs. W. K. Freeman, resident of Boonville, to Ola Hettinger, news reporter in Vallejo, was published in the column Shootin' the Breeze, editor by Anita Garrett. In the letter, the column reported Mrs. Freeman as saying that enough material existed here to make The Egg and I, best-selling novel, take a back place. Mrs. Freeman found mill life and the surrounding country fascinating, and said that though she didn't raise chickens as in The Egg and I, and that her stove was a modern range, she still is finding new things to discover, helping with the mill and roughing it. The W. K. Freemans operate a sawmill near Boonville.

★ Willits News Notes

WILLITS, Feb. 14.—Dolph Hill, Jr., and Ed Durr of the home office of the Golden Eagle Milling Company in Petaluma were business visitors in Willits on February 11th.

Also in Willits this week is the family of Stanley Thomas. Mr. Thomas was, until recently, the partner of Hugh Clark in the United Foods Store. Since selling out, the Thomas family home has been in Malad, Idaho. Although here on business they are taking advantage of the opportuntiy to visit friends.

A round table discussion was held by the Cooperative Nursery School members Tuesday when they made plans to eliminate the rough spots that exist in any newly formed organization. Too, it was announced by Mrs. John Kiraly that February 16 would find the outdoor equipment, swings, slides, etc., ready for use, while a sandbox will be under construction by then. The next meeting will be held February 23, at the Methodist church social hall and all mothers interested in becoming members are invited to attend.

Miss Suzanne Stringer checked into the Howard Memorial Hospital Wednesday evening and promptly identified Mr. and Mrs. Al Stringer as her parents. Mother and daughter are doing well, but we can't say the same for "Pop," as he did not appear for work Thursday. Could it be that fatherhood is all the strain the cartoons quip about?

Some people may be superstitious about Friday the 13th, but not the Davis family of Cummings. To them it is a day to be remembered for the faithful old stork chose that date to bring them their daughter.

Seen in Willits this week was Thomas Meyers, a one-time resident of this community. Since leaving here he has put in two years on the Portland police force and is now associated with the Portland sheriff's office.

While the stork did not bring many tiny bundles of joy to the local families, Vale Specht, local trucker, brought up his latest "baby." It is number four for Vale, and what a big baby. But then, all Peterbilt trucks are big.

Listening to some conversations behind closed doors, one would suspect that the colored population of Willits has recently increased tremendously. However, it is really only certain members of the Lion Club preparing for March 19, on which date they will don charcoal to match their "accents" and present their minstrel show for public opinion. If it is up to the usual Lions par, and from all indications it is, it will definitely be worth seeing.

The recent edict of the city fathers was under discussion last Wednesday by a large group of business men at Andy's. Not only did the edict receive comment, but more prospective candidates for the coming election were named. Although they may have disagreed on candidates, their opinion of the councilmen's edict regarding the Lions Club-sponsored Forty-niner show was unanimous. Another meeting is scheduled for the 18th, at Leaks recreation hall.

Friday, the 13th, held no superstitious fears for Willits Lodge No. 365, F.&A.M., for that was the date they put on a first degree. It was the first such meeting under the newly installed officers, of which George Jamieson is worshipful master. After the meeting all present enjoyed refreshments of franks and coffee.

The Willits Chapter No. 314, O.E.S., held their regular meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Thelma Sawyers, worthy matron, and Robert Camp, worthy patron, presiding. The meeting was made even more interesting by a Valentine gift grab box and the serving of jello, cake and coffee.

The Willits Lions Club met at Andy's on the 12th to make plans for the Boy Scout confab on Thursday, February 19. On this date they will present a Court of Honor and Investiture. Fred Hamilton of the highway patrol will be the speaker on the occasion. The evening will feature a potluck supper. The main event promises to be a lively one, for it will be the "auctioning" of the Lions quilt. This quilt is made of ties, clipped from around the necks of Lions by the able surgical scissors of Dr. R. B. Smalley. The quilt was originally scheduled for "auction" at the 49'er camp show, but as that has been postponed indefinitely the quilt will go on the 19th. In addition to the regular members present, there were three guests, Art Ruud, Jack Boyle and Paul Porterfield.

Mrs. Jane Williams experienced a fright she will not soon forget. It all happened Friday when Jane swerved to avoid another car, lost control of her car, threw her son out of the vehicle onto the sidewalk. The car jumped the curb, and her son came to rest against a convenient telephone pole. Jane was no sooner out of the car than a witness shouted that she had run over the boy. That was too much, so Jane fainted. She needn't have, as neither the boy, Jane, nor the car was seriously damaged.

The Willits Park Pavilion was again the scene of a skating party composed of the young folks of the congregation of the First Baptist church in Ukiah, under the supervision of Rev. Leonard G. Brown. The party had been here in December and found it sufficiently enjoyable to return on February 13. All 49 children, and Rev. Brown seemed very disappointed that 10 o'clock came so quickly.

The Teen-Age Canteen was host to approximately 20 children Friday night. Mrs. Hampton, representing the P.-T.A., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cress, representing the American Legion, were on hand to help the children if and when necessary.

Officers Installed At Encampment Feb. 14

Ukiah Encampment No. 104 installed new officers at their meeting in I.O.O.F. hall last Saturday, February 14. The installation was preceded by a dinner at Maple Cafe, where the men were accompanied by their wives and sweethearts.

The installing officers were Glen D. Colburn, district deputy grand patriarch, Ralph Wombolt, district deputy grand junior warden. Officers installed were Orvall Hall, chief patriarch; Olin E. Moore, high priest; Warren P. Engle, senior warden; W. R. David, scribe and treasurer, and George G. David, inside sentinel.

While the members of the lodge had a short business meeting in the ritual room at I.O.O., their feminine guests waited in the reception hall for the informal reception and social hours that followed.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Free Ride For You— on the Freedom Train!

We had a real thrill in Our Town just the other day—when the Freedom Train stopped by!

You've heard about it, of course—an actual train that's touring the country to remind us again what true Democracy means. It carries such Americana as the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights, and other immortal documents that guarantee every citizen his liberty.

A great idea! And from where I sit, we're all riding along with that Freedom Train—right now—by living in a country that protects our individual liberties—whether they apply to our right to vote, to choose our church, to speak our minds, or enjoy a glass of beer with friends.

Only thing is—we've got to prove ourselves worthy of the ride ... by guarding zealously against whatever forces of intolerance encroach upon our American concepts of live-and-let-live, in a free and strong Democracy!

Symposium Favors One-Way Traffic Plan Proposed By Breakfast Club

Merchants along the streets which will become 1-way thoroughfares if the Ukiah Breakfast Club's traffic control plan is adopted by the city council, have a lively interest in the project, according to a survey completed this week by the traffic committee.

It is the feeling among the majority of the merchants that something has to be done to alleviate the present traffic bottleneck on our narrow business streets, the survey shows. There is, however, a divergence of opinion on just how it is to be accomplished. Views of merchants located on the proposed 1-way streets are as follows:

Stanley Lance, Ukiah Funeral Chapel: "It's okay with me, but some arrangement will have to be made so that funeral processions can go west on Smith street from our chapel, as we are so situated that it is the only feasible route."

"I think it is a good idea. There is no question but what something will have to be done. Hope the cops will quit playing favorites with merchants in regard to leaving freight on the sidewalk," said George Vevoda, when interviewed.

C. W. Rascoe of the Rascoe Store said, "I'm for it above School street. We definitely need better control of double parking, too."

"I would like to see the plan given a trial. With trucks unloading and blocking traffic in our business zone a definite hazard is created under the present condition," Al Fraga told the committee.

William Cox of Cox Motors said the only solution was to take from two to three feet off each side of the walks, thus widening the streets. Also by taking the crown out there would be room enough for 2-way traffic, and the fire hazard which now exists when cars have to park at an angle because of the street construction, would also be eliminated.

"I think it would be alright," Dr. L. K. Van Allen replied to the committee.

Luther Hansen of Hansen's Ukiah Furniture Company said, "I don't see the need for such a plan in a small town, I wouldn't mind having it tried, though."

G. L. Bingham of the New Method Laundry said, "It would save me money. My trucks often have to double park and waste much time bucking traffic on these crowded streets."

George Lung of the State Market said he saw no need for such a plan. He thought people drove too fast.

His neighbor across that street, Jim Davis of the Shell Station said, "I believe it would be a good idea. As a volunteer fireman the present situation to me is critical. Sometimes the engine may be delayed from three to four minutes because of bottlenecks on the streets. A minute lost in going to a fire counts a lot."

Fire Chief Al Bechtol said, "At the present time the fire department doesn't dare go down some of these narrow streets under the 2-way traffic system. We often have to go from two to three blocks out of our way to get to a fire. This is dangerous when our department is manned by volunteers who take the chance of colliding with the fire engine, which should in every case take the shortest route to a fire."

The 1-way street plan as proposed by the Breakfast Club would make for smoother traffic operation. Shoppers may have to go a block out of their way, but would be able to make better time than now, when they buck traffic over the shorter route, the members claim.

Other alternatives to ease the traffic situation include the purchase by the city of a lot behind the post office for a civic parking lot to ease the parking situation, and making parking available on only one side of the streets running east and west between Henry and Stephenson.

Persons interested in the proposition are urged to attend the special hearing before the city council on Wednesday, February 25, in the council room, at 8 o'clock.

Lake Loses Co-op Shed

The Lake County Fruit Exchange plant in Big valley was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Friday night at a loss estimated at $200,000. The plant was located on Highway 29, about five miles south of Lakeport.

The Lake County Fruit Exchange, a cooperative, was formed by 90-odd fruit growers, and their block-long building of frame and sheetiron construction was the largest fruit packing plant in Lake county. Its destruction marked the second similar plant in Lake county to go up in flames within three weeks, the first such loss being the Pacific Fruit Exchange plant (also in Big valley) which was destroyed on the night of January 21; loss $50,000. The cause of that fire also remains a mystery.

Lakeport, Kelseyville and the forestry service sent fire fighting equipment to the fire and many orchard spray rigs were brought into use.

When the fire was discovered, at about 8 o'clock in the evening, it was beyond being controlled.

Nat'l Guard Unit Will Meet Feb. 25

The next meeting of the Ukiah unit of the National Guard is set for February 23 at the Veterans' building, with the unit still looking for a combat engineer, under 30 years. The appointment will carry the rank of lieutenant.

At the first meeting of the unit there were 14 enlistments shown, with Lieut. Colonel Wilder of the 6th Army, San Francisco, and Major Peterson, commanding officer of the 79th battalion, Santa Rosa, present.

Commander DeKeno of the local Legion post was there to welcome the officers and members of the unit and offered them the use of the building as long as they found it expedious.

Jo Stornetta Died In Ukiah Thursday

Jo Stornetta of Point Arena died in a local hospital on Thursday night of last week, where he had been for treatment since February 5. He was the twin brother of Ao Stornetta, who died a short time ago, and his death is believed to have been hastened materially by his grief.

The brothers had been associated in their extensive ranch operations in the Point Arena-Manchester district and he had lived on the former Sheppard ranch. He leaves a family.
